

Fort Benning Tropical Cyclone Update

Tropical Storm Fred 16 Aug 2021, 1400L

Date	Winds	Rain	Tornado
16 Aug/2200L	20G35mph	1-2"rain	Potential
17 Aug/01-06L	25G545ph	2-4"rain	Potential
17 Aug/1900L	10-15 mph	None	None
17 Aug/2100L	<10mph	None	None
	<10mph	None	None

Minimal Impact

Moderate Impact

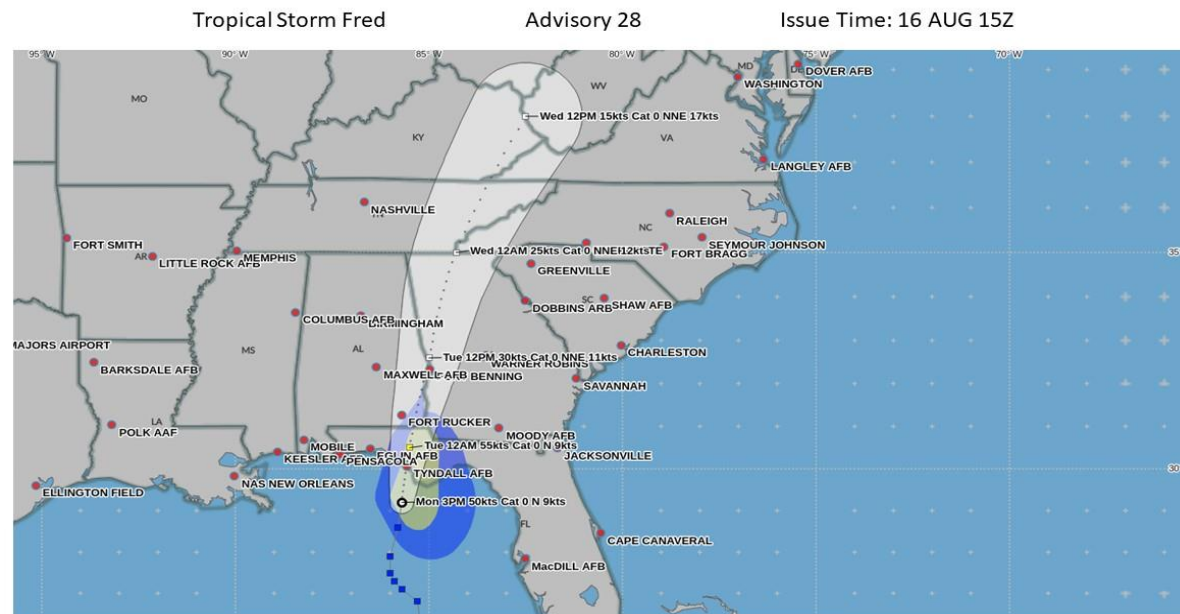

Severe Impact

Minimal Impact: < 1" rain, < 30mph wind

Moderate Impact: 1-2" rain, 30-49 mph wind

Severe Impact: > 2" rain, > 50 mph wind (sustained), tornadoes

Position and Track Synopsis:

Tropical Storm Fred is located just off Florida's Gulf Coast with wind speeds of 60 mph moving north at a speed of 10 mph. Expect landfall to occur at 1600L this afternoon on the central coast of the Florida Panhandle. The system is expected to move to the north-northeast with the eye of the storm expected to move over the area round 05L. The system will continue to move to the north through Tuesday with the system weakening as it moves on land.

Impacts to Local Area:

Fort Benning: In the threat for rain 2-4 inches for Fort Benning. For Fort Benning , expect strong winds of 28G45mph between 01L to 06L Tuesday morning. Isolated tornadoes will be possible.